

„Validating competences gained at the workplace in case of low qualified people”

Project Bulletin Fifth transnational meeting and valorisation conference

Fifth meeting and Valorisation Conference was held on 19-20/10/2015 in Budapest, Hungary. Partners shared each other the feedbacks and experiences from the pilot test made in each partner countries, and discussed the finalisation of ValidAid+ project final deliverables.

The most important part of the meeting was the Valozization Conference, which was a final event of the project dissemination. More than 70 participants took part in the Valorization Conference where project consortium present the ValidAid+ project deliverables to the general public.

Besides the lectures of the project Zita Ujhelyi representing the National Employment Office held a presentation of the current situation of unemployment in Hungary, especially in Budapest.
